

ANCISH VOCABULARY 2023
ǣla / ala	each, every, all ana	verbal particle that suggests narrowness or specificity, intensity and	and
BEONA	be, come to be, become, happen, grow, form into
BRECA	crush, destroy, smash, break, use violence
CILDA	child, offspring, progeny bearma	male child
	mæda	female child
cyma	come, come back, come at; movement is toward; fara is for movement away or for fara cnawan 'to come to know'
CRÆFTA	make, create, build, goodness, might, strength, craft knowledge, skill
DÆGA	day, daytime, today; not night
DRYHTA	lord, in the manner of a lord
ELLA	courage, bravery
ealda	old, ancient
EORLA	noble, earl, lord
fara	go, go out, go at, approach (fara cnawan 'to come to know')
FÆDA	father
	fæda hēaha , "high father" fýra	fire, fiery, flame finda	find, locate, discover frēoda	friend, be a friend, be friendly gifta	gift, present, treasure, a valuable thing
GODA	God, the Lord
	goda hēaha, "high god"
GODA	good, wholesome, healthy, sound, valid, adventagious, lucky HĀDA	state, quality; station, rank, pers think childhood/priesthood hāliga	holy
HĒAHA	high, in the sky, great (often said of God or Lords) heorda	guard, keep safe (wrt treasure: hoard, gather, amass)
HLEAHA	laugh
	smearca	laugh at, ridicule, smirk, smile hræda	speed, quickness (often hræde, quickly)
HUNDA	dog
	bica	female dog
HŪSA, hofa	house, building hofa	grand house, built temple hwæt	listen! (interjection) hwila... te	while
hwīta	white
landa	land, place
lihta	light
LOTA	lurk, hide, sneak
lȳta	little, small, diminutive, lacking
MAGA	power, strength, energy, rich, stomach mana	person, human being ("male" is wer) MANIGA	many, a great number, plural plega	play, make sport, have fun
SCOPA	make, shape (especially in regard to poetry and textile arts) scula	shall, must

SĒA	see, look at sēca	seek, search for, look for stīga	rise above obstacles, overcome, win, best a challenge spela	story, falsehood, parable
sunā	sun
SWEARMA	a great many, a host, a swarm, an army
SWEOFA	sleep
THRYMA	might, strength, energy	rhymes with "grim" thura, tura, thur	through, throughout WERA	man, guy, dude, male carla	bodyguard, warrior mana	human being
WESA	exist, existence, remain, stay, wait, live, dwell, inhabit wasa?
	vesta	liturgical register wila	want, desire; implies future winca	close the eyes, wink WISA	wise, knowledgeable, cunning, sagely; a sage or wise person; wisdom wyfa	woman, mother, wife
yfela	evil					